

LMS-Lite™

Introduction

Successful eLearning solutions combine engaging and relevant courseware with the right technology.

What is LMS-Lite™?

LMS-Lite™ is a state-of-the-art, custom-built learning platform that delivers eLearning programs, online assessments, and other performance-enhancing programming. With LMS-Lite™, you get the technology solution that best fits your eLearning needs... no surprises, no operational confusion, and no integration issues.

LMS-Lite™ Courseware

LMS-Lite™ courseware is powered by a team of professional medical writers, graphic artists, and video and programming experts who have extensive medical education development experience. Our programs are built on solid instructional design principles, with intuitive navigation and media-rich content developed according to your direction. Programs comply with SCORM, AICC, and/or ADA, as needed.

LMS-Lite™ Assessments

Assessment management is a critical component of any performance-based learning initiative. LMS-Lite™ features a robust assessment capability that delivers pre-assessments, surveys, and post assessments using various testing strategies and reporting functions.

LMS-Lite™ Integration

Your LMS-Lite™ platform is designed to integrate seamlessly into any existing technology platform, effectively using current resources while providing the additional functionality and flexibility you need to address emerging training and development needs.

LMS-Lite™

Sharpen your competitive edge by effectively harnessing state-of-the-art technology to address your specific training and development needs. LMS-Lite™, developed by illuminate and CSoft USA, offers the ideal combination of customizable courseware and functionality. You define the challenge; we build a cost-effective, performance-based solution. Illuminate is a "content house" that produces exceptional pharmaceutical sales training development programs. CSoft USA is a technology company with years of experience building medical learning and assessment platforms. We combine our expertise to build and support a complete learning management system designed to sharpen your competitive edge.

LMS-Lite™ Economies

With LMS-Lite™, you get only the content you want and the technology you need. And, by working seamlessly with your existing systems, we help you achieve maximum return on your technology investment.
